

Article 30 of the EU General Data Protection Regulation 2016/679

	in Finland. The Service Manager and the Director of Services have a right to listen to the recordings.
10 Right of access	As a rule, every person taking part in a telephone call has a right to listen to the recording of that call on the premises of the Union of Professional Engineers in Finland, in a space assigned by the Union and at a separately agreed time. The recordings will not be transferred or disclosed. The member shall submit the request for access directly to the controller. The member may use the model form prepared by the Office of the Data Protection Ombudsman.
11 Right to request rectification of data	The data concerning the telephone call recordings cannot be modified.